ORDERS FREE INLAND TRADE -- Wen-hui Pao, 7 Jul 49

The North China Peoples Government has issued an order that in the future inland trade will be guided by the principle of free trade to increase the exchange of goods. No local administrative organ may limit or halt the transport of goods without permission from the NCPG. Local market control organs are ordered to coordinate trade and financial organs in time of price fluctuations so as to regulate supply and demand, and are forbidden to consider only the interest of their own locality. Aid to importers and exporters in purchasing goods for export is encouraged. With the exception of liquor and tobacco, any commodity may be used in trade with neighboring liberated areas without restriction.
